Nauticus Robotics Tests Aquanaut Mk2 Vehicle, Announces 2023 Results

HOUSTON – April 9, 2024. Nauticus Robotics, Inc. (“Nauticus” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: KITT) today announced preliminary testing results for its Aquanaut Mk2 vehicle and financial results for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2023.

“We have spent the past few months transforming Nauticus from a company with great R&D capabilities to one poised to be commercially successful,” said John W. Gibson, Jr., Nauticus’ CEO and President. “We successfully raised additional capital, reorganized our operations, materially reduced expected G&A costs, and initiated sea trials for our Aquanaut Mk2 vehicle in the Gulf of Mexico. These sea trials include not just depth, but maneuverability, emergency procedures, launch and recovery, and are milestone events in Nauticus’ vision. Our team has successfully tested to a depth of greater than 1,200 meters. We’ve gone from promise to product. The next generation of subsea vehicle is now in the water.”

Operational Highlights

- Product Structure: The Company has reorganized its personnel and operations to focus on its four main products: Autonomous Solutions, Government Solutions, Olympic Arms and toolKITT software. Each of these product groups has a dedicated leader and team focused on revenue-producing opportunities.
- Aquanaut Testing: Nauticus’ Aquanaut Mk2 vehicle exceeded expectations during its initial tests in the Gulf of Mexico, including launch and recovery, emergency procedures, and maneuverability. A video of part of the tests is available on the Company’s YouTube channel at <https://youtu.be/GyPD1E-vqHA>.
- Facility Consolidation: The Company brought assembly and maintenance in-house, eliminating external vendors in Canada and other countries. In the first quarter of 2024, Nauticus negotiated an exit to redundant office space in Houston and continues to work on subleasing or otherwise eliminating space in other locations as well.
- Customer Focus: Nauticus continued engagement with its early adopter customers. Nauticus also engaged Jorge Machnizh, a seasoned sales and business development leader. Jorge’s experience includes software and service sales in deepwater markets.
- Cost Alignment: The Company took steps to bring its G&A and other costs more closely in line with other companies of its size and operational history.
- Defense Contracts: Nauticus completed DIU contracts during the fourth quarter of 2023 and first quarter of 2024, and certificates of successful completion are expected.

NAUTICUS ROBOTICS, INC.

Unaudited Reconciliation of Net Loss Attributable to Common Stockholders (GAAP) to Adjusted Net Loss Attributable to Common Stockholders (NON-GAAP)

Adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders is a non-GAAP financial measure which excludes certain items that are included in net loss attributable to common stockholders, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure. Items excluded are those which the Company believes affect the comparability of operating results and are typically excluded from published estimates by the investment community, including items whose timing and/or amount cannot be reasonably estimated or are non-recurring.

Adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders is presented because management believes it provides useful additional information to investors for analysis of the Company's fundamental business on a recurring basis. In addition, management believes that adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders is widely used by professional research analysts and others in the valuation, comparison, and investment recommendations of companies such as Nauticus.

Adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for net loss attributable to common stockholders or any other measure of a company's financial performance or profitability presented in accordance with GAAP. A reconciliation of the differences between net loss attributable to common stockholders and adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders is presented below. Because adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders excludes some, but not all, items that affect net loss attributable to common stockholders and may vary among companies, our calculation of adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.
